APRIL 2011

Presidential Address

I can't believe it is almost April. One would not know it by looking out the window. We still have tons of snow and horribly high snow banks from the last incredible snowstorm that we had. And today it is warm and pouring outside. I know that it will melt some of the snow, but it is causing problems in some areas because of flooding. I hope none of you are having those problems. Hopefully, by our April meeting we will see grass in some areas - maybe even some crocuses. I hope if the Nominating Committee calls you, you will consider being one of our officers or committee chairs next year. It is a truly worthwhile commitment and you will get to know more people. We have a very good board, so the work is spread out - no one has to do it all. See you at the April meeting.

Rita Bortz, President

April 5-6, 2011: Anne Gallo & Susan Raban

Anne and Susan have shared their tips and techniques across the country and internationally. Having worked with Mary Ellen Hopkins for many years, their focus is precision machine piecing. Join us for their great trunk show incorporating quilts from their 25 years of collaboration starting with the first quilts to their latest efforts with an emphasis on the latest works.

Silent Auction

Silent Auction quilts for our show in October are being accepted by Marty DelNevo (Sundby) who can be found at the Membership Table before our monthly meetings. Please make sure to attach your name to your quilt before turning it in. If you're undecided about what to make for the Silent Auction, wall hanging sized quilts, table runners, and table toppers always do well. Art-type quilts, seasonal colors, and holiday themes draw attention from bidders as well.

Marty DelNevo

Quilt Show 2011

Hello, everyone –

I want to take this opportunity to update you on the 2011 Quilt Show. We have already had a very busy month, with many decisions having been made. You may have heard rumblings about the show not being able to be at Shelburne Farm's Coach Barn this year. It's true! The condition of the field and road in November, according to our contact at Shelburne Farms, is such that they decided not to rent the Coach Barn after October each year. Also, for this year they have each weekend booked from the middle of June through the end of October. Ah, well – change is good, right? In this case, we hope so. We have found a marvelous new venue for the show. It will be at The Fieldhouse in Shelburne. That is Shelburne Health & Fitness's facility on Athletic Drive (2nd right off Harbor Road). We are very excited about the move. It is going to allow us more space than we have had which, of course, means more room for displaying quilts (no limit this year on the number allowed to be entered!), more vendors and potentially more special displays. Further, the timing of the show is moved up to Columbus Day weekend (October 8th-9th) which puts it during leaf-peeper season – more attendees!

Our theme this year is "Once Upon a Time..." which brings thoughts of special books we have read from which we can draw inspiration. Although the title implies children's tales, books we've read and continue to read as adults appeal just as much to the imagination. For instance, it is not a stretch for me to find a theme in James Herriot's "All Creatures Great and Small". Or perhaps I'll draw my theme from the book I am currently reading on immigration in America. See where this is going?

A final update for this month – all positions for quilt show committee chairs are filled. I repeat, all are filled. That is amazing! I do not even have to appeal for volunteers to help out on the committee. This is truly an exciting year! (Keep in mind, however, we will be looking for volunteers for the show itself as October draws near. Think about how you would like to contribute – white gloves, silent auction, admissions, craft table, etc. and we'll be in touch. ) Also, for anyone who was considering joining the Quilt Show Committee, this is a great year to do it as the committee chairs would love to mentor next year's chairs.

Ever onward, June Sweeney

THEME / CHALLENGE QUILT 2011

The theme for this year's quilt show is "Once Upon a Time ..... ". Does this remind you of a favorite book, fairy tale, nursery rhyme, poem or story? Can you picture a quilted wall hanging from one of the scenes? Well that is your task for the theme/challenge quilt. The rules are quite easy: They are:

1. Wall hanging represents "Once Upon a Time ...."
2. Perimeter not to exceed 144 inches.
3. A 3"x 5" Card attached to lower right corner, explaining your source and why you chose this particular story. A copy of a book cover or page of an article that can be pinned to the quilt.
4. Finished hangings will be displayed at the October guild meeting and members will vote for their favorite piece.

To enter in CVQG Show, registration form must be completed by deadline.

We are excited about this theme and can see endless possibilities for the challenge.

Volunteers Needed for 2012

The members of the nominating committee for the 2012 slate of new officers are Ruth Whitaker, Joanne Guillmette and Andre Emmell.

This is the time of the year that we need members to step up and volunteer to spend some of their time keeping us running like a well maintained sewing machine. However, like any organization, we have our problems. We need NEW and long term members to help keep us running as an organization in the community and state. Please get involved. Keep this organization vibrant and viable.

We need a Vice-President for the coming year. I stepped into this job this year but as a guild member of three years I will be your GUILD president in 2012. Many of you know and understand the needs of the guild for the Burlington area much better than I ever will. I need members to step out and help keep community projects going.

I know certain members have been holding many of the same responsibilities for many years. They would now like to step back and mentor members to undertake these positions so we can continue our great community work. Several board members have held their positions for a long time. We need your energy and support to keep our Guild vital and active. Please speak to me or send me an email at emmellandre@gmail.com.
 Andre Emmell

Splinters from the Board

Brief overview of discussions held at CVQG board meeting held March 11, 2011

We discussed upcoming programs and considered the purchase of a digital projector. A nominating committee has been formed and has names of people to approach for various positions. We need volunteers to work on Community Quilts. The ladies who have undertaken this task for many years need a break. We considered the best way to encourage people to step up and take on a portion of this work. The Treasurers' report and quilt show were also discussed. A motion was made and passed. As an incentive, volunteers coordinating events/activities are exempt from payment.

Teela Dufresne, Substitute Recording Secretary

Tea Cup Auction

Diane Larrabee, Carol Thurgate, and Gail Babinger will again organize the Tea Cup Auction for this year. We will try to have the same format as last year. We are in need of baskets or decorative boxes to package things in. If you would like to donate such items please leave at the church near the library area, the same as last year. Also bring in items you would like to donate. We'll accept items up till May. Please do not bring items in June. Only donate items in good reasonable condition. No junk, or broken items please. We have

Bus Trips

I wonder if all of you have noticed that no one is planning a bus trip for this spring or summer. That's because no one has stepped up to do it. Ruth Whitaker did this for many, many years. Now it is time for someone else to step up to do it. I'm sure Ruth would pass on all her tips to help the next person. Please consider doing this!
 Rita Bortz

Champlain Valley Quilters' Guild Minutes, March 1st, 2011

President Rita Bortz welcomed members and guests and asked committee chairs to have budget information ready for the April meeting.

Janet Brunet, program co-chair reminded members of the thread painting class to be given next month and announced that it would be open to non-members after this meeting. She introduced the owners of local quilt stores and acknowledged all they do to help us as quilters and thanked them for their hard work. She mentioned Tammy Breckinridge, June Bugbee, Jennifer Haydock and Judy Thomas.

Joanne Latrell program co chair introduced the evening's speaker, author Marie Bostwick, who has written several books set in a quilt shop. She gave an entertaining talk about her journey as an author and showed slides of the quilts she has made to share her stories.

After the break, Rita chaired the business meeting.

President Elect Andre Emmell asked members to consider volunteering as president elect or a committee chair. Community quilts is especially in need of help.

Community Quilts co chair Wendy Thompson reminded members that the Community Quilts workshop will be held April 9th at the Teen Center, starting at 10:00 am. Some quilt angels need to pick up their certificates and pins. The winner of the drawing from names of those turning in work was Nichole Chalander.

Teela Dufresne, as volunteer chair for VQF announced she is taking names of volunteers for VQF. There are lots of pre-show spots to fill. Four hours volunteer time gives you advance registration for classes. Teela also reminded members of the spring retreat at Camp Abnacki. Money is due at the April meeting.

June Sweeney, co chair of the CVQG Show announced the dates will be October 8th and 9th and that the show will be held at the Shelburne Health and Fitness Center. The theme will be Once Upon a Time. Because of the change in date, deadlines will be earlier than in past years. Ruth Whitaker talked about the quilt challenge. Quilts must represent a book, not necessarily a children's book. They will be presented and voted on at the October meeting and must be registered for the show the same way as any other entry.

Teela and Hope Johnson presented the raffle quilt "Once Upon a Christmas" and told its story. The top, pieced by Rose Orr, was given to the Community Quilt committee. Shirley Fuller felt it would make a good raffle quilt and asked the show committee to make a decision. It was agreed it would make a lovely raffle quilt. It was quilted by Anne Harmon, and Shirley applied the binding. Anyone wanting to make and donate a raffle quilt for another year is invited to present their idea to the show committee.

Phyllis Billings and Priscilla Roehm are in charge of the volunteers selling raffle tickets for the fair. They asked for volunteers and talked about a new way of handling the money. To ease life for Phyllis and Priscilla, they requested the first volunteer for the day pick up the cash box from their home in the morning and the last volunteer for the day return it to their home in the evening.

Pam Farnsworth, information table chair, announced the winners of the name tag raffle. Shop Hop passports were won by Michelle Scilla and Mary Young. Pam explained the shop hop and mentioned passports are available now at area quilt shops.

Membership chair, Marty del Nevo said 6 new members joined at this meeting and welcomed them to the group. As chair of the silent auction at the show, she asked people to think about making and contributing a wall hanging. Seasonal items go well, as well as table runners, advent calendars and items that are different in some way. Those made with the best attention to detail do best. She will need them by the October meeting and needs to know who made each one.

Newsletter chair Esther Nui, presented the guidelines for the sharing corner of the newsletter and also reminded members they may post a free classified ad in the newsletter.

The tea cup auction chairs are in need of baskets and boxes for the auction, which is held in June. They will accept items in great condition until the May meeting.

Stocking Raffle chair Ruth Whitaker presented the basket to new member Marilyn Vlasak. The basket was prepared and donated by Connie Macdonald.

Raffle block chair Anne Standish explained the raffle block for May and showed the fabric she has ready. Mitzi Oakes won the blocks for both February and March.

The January minutes were accepted on motion of Ruth Whitaker and Teela Dufresne.

The meeting was adjourned on motion of Andre Emmell and Caroline Edmunds.

Barbara Carter

Our Sharing Corner

From Karen Martin:

Here's a little suggestion that others might find helpful: I like to make bias bindings for my handmade quilts. I usually have some binding left over after the binding is sewn to the quilt. I save these pieces for making a hit-or-miss binding for a future quilt.

From Claire Graham-Smith:

I recently visited a new-ish, 2 yr old quilt shop and thought people might like to know more about it. Water-wheel House in Londonderry, new to the Shop Hop this year is great. It is a big shop in an old white house complete with hanging quilts on the porch. They specialize in modern fresh fabric (lots of Kaffe Fassett, Amy Butler and the like). They sell wool and embellishing supplies that can be hard to find. It is a long drive from Burlington, 2 1/4 hours or so, but it's a shop worth considering for a special trip. It is also close to Chester's Country Treasures, which is another great store. The address is 6795 Route 100 Londonderry 05148 and Shelley (802-824-5700) is the owner.

From Esther Nui:

I am attempting to pick up the skill of machine quilting. My books recommend using quilter clips to control the bulk of the quilt but do not specify a particular brand or type of clip. Can anyone in the Guild steer me in the right direction of the correct quilter clip to purchase or do they all work as well? I have seen oval ones and round ones made in plastic or metal. I have also read a suggestion about making your own quilter clip out of plastic adult bracelets. Please send me an email at esthernui@yahoo.com Thank you.

COMMUNITY QUILTS

Reserve this date! Community Quilt workshop is on Saturday, April 9th at the EAC Teen Center. 10-5, lunch included.

Come for the day or just a few hours. This is a great opportunity to meet others and get involved. There are opportunities to machine quilt, (bring your own machine), piece tops, create machine quilting kits (we provide batting and choice of backings), plenty of handwork as well as making labels and bindings. Lots of snacks are brought to share and coffee and water always available.

We will be doing our final distributions for this year in May - so keep bringing the quilts to the Guild meetings! We have lots of new kits to be stitched so it's not too early to stock up for summer!! Spring is coming!!

Shirley Fuller (sfuller50@gmail.com)

Stocking Corner

For the remainder of the year, there are kits available at each meeting. I'm located just past the community quilt table in the lobby. All of the stocking kits now have the pattern traced on the liner fabric, courtesy of the hard work of those that participated in January's workshop. Come pick out your favorite fabric to turn into a stocking!

CVQG Programs -2010-2011

Please remember to stop at the Programs table at our meetings to get information about upcoming speakers and workshops. Janet Brunet & Joanne Lattrell (Programs co-chairs)

April 6: Susan Raban and Anne Gallo

This workshop is almost full. Please check availability before mailing in your registration.

Programs@cvqgvt.org

Workshop – Wednesday, April 6 – Shapes, Tools and Making it Right

Time: 9:00-3:30 Cost: $40

Location: Essex Alliance Church, Old Stage Road, Essex

Students will learn to use the tools needed to make the geometric shapes for their quilts. Anne and Susan do everything in a simple straight forward way. They have found in their many years of teaching that some quilters never learn to break down the blocks to their simplest units, make each unit accurately, and then put them together to create blocks and finally a quilt. After everyone has learned to make these shapes, they will be given a pattern for a suggested layout using the shapes they make. Each student gets to use every tool and is provided his or her own instruction sheet for reference.

May 3-4, 2011: Nancy Prince

Nancy Prince, an award winning quilt artist from Orlando, Florida, specializes in thread painting. Her anyone-can-do-it approach to thread painting is fun, easy and a new way for quilters to broaden their quilting experience. Nancy is the author of Simple Thread Painting published by the American Quilter's Society, has taped several episodes for Simply Quilts and Creative Living on PBS, has appeared in national magazines and has won numerous quilting awards. Her quilts have won Best of Show, Viewer's Choice, Artistic Merit, Best Machine Workmanship and Judge's Recognition at recent shows and first place at Bernina University.

Nancy is totally addicted to thread painting and her enthusiasm in workshops can be contagious!!!

A note about Nancy Prince's workshops:

Take time to watch the free 9 minute video on her website Stitches with Attitude! Don't worry about thread selection. Bring what you have as the technique is most important.

Workshop: Quilting a Landscape Quilt*Tuesday, May 3

Time: 1:00-4:00 Cost: $25 plus kit fee of $20

Location: United Church of Colchester, Main Street, Colchester, VT

Quilting a landscape quilt is different than quilting a traditional quilt. Remove all thoughts of feathers and crosshatching – you have to think terrain for the quilting to be effective. Learn how easy it is to determine the appropriate quilting lines based on different terrains and how simply changing the quilting detail can create the illusion that one area is far away while another is closer. And no, you will not have to relearn your quilting skills – just change a bit how you use those skills. Supply List

Workshop: A Quick Peek at Threadpainting – Wednesday, May 4

Time: 9:00-3:30 Cost: $40 plus kit fee of $11.50

Location: Essex Alliance Church, Old Stage Road, Essex, VT

Thread painting my way is as simple as 1.2.3. Whether this is your first thread painted workshop or you want to add or advance your thread painting skills, then this is the workshop for you. This quick peek into thread painting will show that just by changing the direction and speed of the hoop the look of the stitch completely changes. Supply List

Workshop policy for non-members: Members have priority for all workshops. However, we encourage interested non-members to put their names on the non-member waiting list at any time. If a workshop is not filled by the end of the meeting prior to the teacher's lecture, non-members who are on the waiting list will be invited to enroll.

Camp Abnaki Spring Session - update

Payment is due at the April meeting for the spring session of Camp Abnaki, unless you have spoken to me and made other arrangements.

I would like to have photos of your sewing space for the game by April 15. You can email me a photo or send a photo by snail mail. You and I are the only ones that will know it's yours. I plan on posting these on a board at camp to see who can guess the most correct photos.

Again the dates are April 28- May 1.

FORMS & INFORMATION FOR GUILD QUILT SHOW: "Once Upon a Time...."

Greetings Quilters!

Please let me introduce myself. I'm starting my third year as a guild member and have been quilting just a bit longer than that. This year I'm volunteering as Registrar for our quilt show and while I still have much to learn about this job from my wonderful mentor June, I'm excited to help out and look forward to making many new friends along the way.

Please visit the guild website for forms and information about the show. Quilt entry categories and criteria remain the same including the Innovations category introduced last year under the "non-traditional" category. Enter one or multiple quilts in any category with the limit of one entry per category to be judged. Registration deadline for all entries is Tuesday September 6.

I will bring forms to upcoming meetings so find me there or contact me by email or phone if you have questions.

Happy sewing, Colette Kaiser (cbk.vermont@yahoo.com) 879-8917 (h)

May Raffle Block

Spring Yo-Yo Flowers

This 'block' is a throwback that has come around again. They could be used together in a wall hanging or to embellish things like tote bags or home dec items. I was going for light, clear spring florals with small prints, or tone on tone. Go for pink, yellow, purple or orange. Thirties re-pros would be nice. Charm packs would be perfect. For the center yo-yo choose a med to light blue to unify the 'flower'. Each finished yo-yo is 1.5" by 1.75".

First create a 4 1/4" freezer paper template to cut 7 different fabrics. I found a small bowl the right size, or you could use a compass. You may be able to stack the fabrics by pinning them together to cut them or the larger size Clover brand Yo-yo maker is perfect and may be a bit quicker.

Using a knotted sturdy thread, hand quilting, poly or a blend, baste the edge of the circle with 3/8" stitches about 3/8" around the whole edge. Overlap by one stitch and then gently pull to gather the yo-yo. As you do so make sure the edge is tucked in so the hole in the center will be turned under, not raw edge. You are aiming to close the hole as much as possible but it will be all scrunched up. Simply stitch across in an 'X' several times to secure the thread, and tie off with a couple of back stitches. Bury the thread by poking the needle into the center before cutting the end. Complete all 7 and lay them out in a pleasing way. Mark the spot on the center blue yo-yo where to attach each outer yo-yo, aiming for the center. Then stitch with a neutral or matching thread, several whip stitches at the same place. There will be little triangle spaces. Have Fun! They can be quite addictive to make once you get started!! Finished block is about 5" square.

Questions? Call me - Claire Graham-Smith 660-8903 or email claire@burlingtontelecom.net
