January 2019

Remember, The Guild Mtg is Jan 8th!

January Programs

Beat cabin fever.

Take time to relax after the holidays.

Join us for a quilting bee.

We will have community quilts to bind or tie. If you have any community quilts to bind please bring them. Bring your own hand work if you prefer.

Come listen to more past presidents share their quilting journey, and enjoy a quilting social around each table.

Caroline Juneau and Barbara Newman

From da Prez!!

The holidays are upon us. Festive lights are brightening the landscape and holiday music is playing everywhere we go to help get us in the mood. Our favorite holiday movies and TV shows, both old and new, are bringing back the joy of the season. And of course there are the parties!

Our holiday party was another success. Thank you Barbara Newman and Caroline Juneau for putting together a great program. I would also like to thank everyone who helped set up and take down, and made us yummy food to share.

It was so much fun to relax, enjoy some tasty treats, visit with everyone and play the game

2018 Raffle Quilt Blue Rose goes home

Jessica Lavalette of Essex, the lucky winner, received the quilt from President Linda Lane at the board meeting on December 11.

The 2018 raffle quilt, Blue Rose, earned $2,641 with approximately 2,850 tickets. The quilt was made by guild members of the Mountain Arts Quilters small group: Alexandra Nickerson, Anne Standish, Carla White, Helen Irwin, Janet Brunet, Jeannette Harrison, Marjan Schugar, Marty DelNevo, Pamela Farnsworth and Wilma Gatti, who also quilted it. All the fabric and batting were donated by Yankee Pride Quilt Shop. Thank you!

Raffle Quilt at the Fair

 (do we all know our left from our right yet, ha ha? I know I had some trouble at the party remembering). I enjoyed hearing from two of our past presidents very much and look forward to the hearing from more of them at future meetings. It is always fun to hear how the guild has changed over the years.

In keeping with our theme this year, it's time to celebrate with our friends and family. I wish you all the best in the New Year.
 da Prez!
 aka Linda Lane

Survey Results

What months you would like to meet

There were 23 surveys completed. We will discuss this at the January and February meetings and have the vote on if we should change the schedule at the March meeting, so that we will have time to reserve the hall for next year. The count below indicates how many people voted for each month.

- January = 7
- February = 17
- March = 22
- April = 22
- May = 23
- June = 21
- July = 4
- August = 13

- October = 23
- November = 23
- December = 22

Looking for the 2019 Raffle Quilt!

Do you have an idea for our 2019 raffle quilt? The top can be made by one person or a group of people. The guild will pay for materials not donated, plus the machine quilting (if not donated). Ideally, the quilt would need to be finished in time to display and sell tickets at the Women's Expo in March. A raffle quilt manager could find other venues to sell more tickets. This will be our major fund-raiser for guild programs for the next year.

2019 Raffle Quilt Venues

- Women's Expo, March 23, 2019 at the fairgrounds
- Champlain Valley Fair, August 23 - September 1, 2019
- Shelburne Harvest Festival, Saturday, September 21, 2019 at Shelburne Farms

CVQG Meeting Minutes

December 4, 2018

Holy Family Parish Hall, Essex Jct

The meeting and holiday party was opened at 6pm by President Linda Lane. Members provided and enjoyed sweet and savory treats.

Caroline Juneau, cochair of the Program Committee, emceed the party activities.

Past Presidents Jeanette Mann and Sue McGuire were featured speakers this month. They described their quilting journey and showed many of their beautiful quilts.

Announcements

- Board Meeting will be held at Yankee Pride Tuesday, December 11 at 5:55pm. All members are invited.
- Remember to add to the Kudos basket.
- Surveys for your thoughts on meeting months, etc. are available until end of meeting.
- The Challenge Quilts will be featured at our October 2019 meeting. Since there is no show next year, the theme is selected by the person or group who will steer the project.

January Quilt Block: Scrappy Striped Triangle

Size: 6 1/2" (unfinished)

Preparation of Ivory Triangles:

- Cut a 7 inch strip out of tone/tone ivory fabric.
- Cut into 7 inch squares.
- Cut on the diagonal to form triangles.

Preparation of the Strips:

- Select 5 fabrics of the same color, with different prints.
- For the middle 3 fabrics, cut each strip 2" by 42".
- For the outside 2 fabrics, cut each strip 2 3/4" by 42".

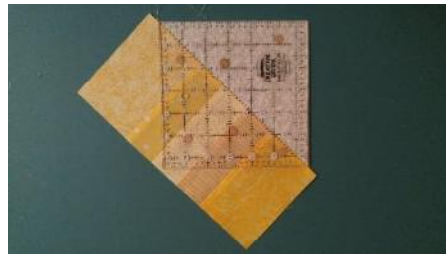

1. Sew strips together. The outside strips are wider.
2. Cut the striped fabric into 5 inch wide sections.

3. Sew the striped section and the half square triangle together.

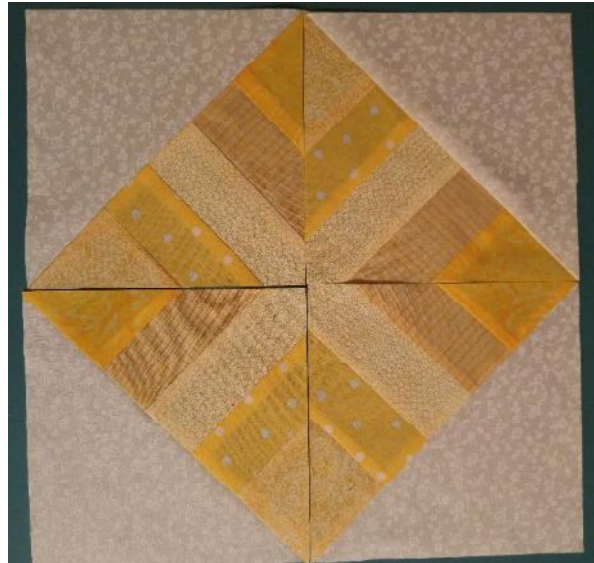

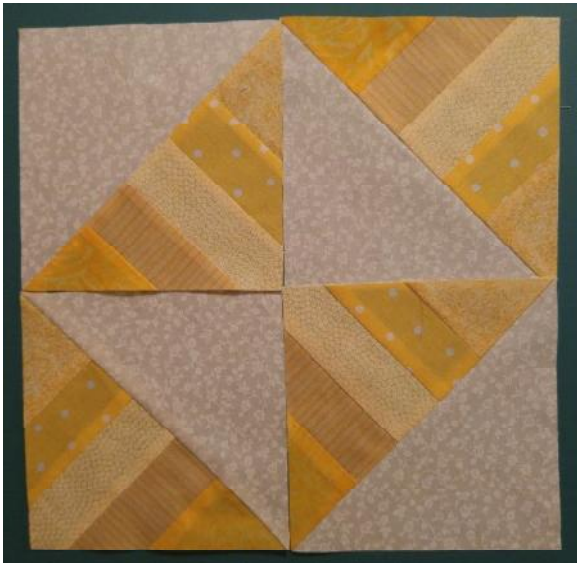

4. Trim the block to 6 1/2 " square.

You will have enough strips and triangles to create 8 blocks!

The winner of the blocks will have the ability to create some very interesting effects.
