

Champlain Valley Quilt Guild

December 2018

Programs

December Potluck

Time: The “meeting” starts at 6:00pm instead of 7:00pm. Volunteers are needed for set-up and clean-up. Set-up starts at 5:30 and clean up will start when the meeting is over, which should be around 8:00pm.

Food: Please bring sweet or savory finger foods to share. The guild will supply napkins/plates/cups/silverware.

Please remember our goal of having a “recyclable, compostable, trash-free” event.

Program: Please bring a small, unwrapped “white elephant” that will be used for a fun-filled activity! It may or may not be quilting related. It may or may not be holiday themed. This is the perfect opportunity to re-gift that little something that just isn’t your style. Start shopping around the house, back of the closet, bottom of the drawer...

Barbara Newman*

From the CVQG President

Time for a par-tay! I always love our potluck meetings. We don’t just have amazing quilters in our group, but some outstanding cooks, as well. Remember the meeting starts at 6:00pm instead of 7:00. If you are able to arrive around 5:30 to help set up, that would be great. We will also need help cleaning up afterwards, so it would be great if some people could plan to stay to help.

The Raffle Quilt will find out who its lucky owner is at the next meeting and it is time to get next year’s quilt started (past time, sorry folks, I should have been announcing this sooner). The new quilt top needs to be finished by February, if you want to put it in VQF (so you can submit a picture). We usually start off our sales for the year at the Women’s Expo, which is on March 23rd 2019, so it would need to be finished by then. It would be great if we could get

A little girl from our community was in a very serious medical crisis, and yet happy to receive a quilt from CVQG Community Quilts. Her name is Gabbi and she’s getting better every day.

 a person or committee to sign up to be the raffle quilt manager and get the quilt made and find venues to sell it. It is our biggest fundraiser, and without the show we need to find other places to vend to increase ticket sales. Once the design and colors are picked out, we could have a few workshops to get the top done.

It is also time to start thinking about next year's Challenge Quilt. We are going to need someone to start organizing that.

If you have been wondering where you could help out the Guild, now is your chance. The Raffle Quilt and the Challenge Quilt are two important positions that need to be filled.

See you soon and don't forget your yummy snacks to share, your appetite, your "white elephant" and your first block for the round robin!
da Prez!
 aka Linda Lane

2019 Round Robin

The first block is due at the December meeting, so it can be passed to the next person in line. There will be five people per group and one person will be voted as the leader. The blocks will pass in order through the group, so you will always be giving your finished block to the same person and receiving the next block from the same person each month. Blocks can be 10, 12, or 14 inches.

After each person does their block they turn it over to the next person in the group along with some fabric if they have some they want to include. The process concludes in April so there will be two months to finish and there will be a show and tell at the June Potluck meeting. The blocks can be kept secret or not, it is up to your group.

Team 1 Pat Johnson, Barbara Newman, Janet Jaffe, Lyn Hoffelt and Carol Bloomhart.

Team 2 Caroline Juneau, Marty DelNevo, Sue Mcguire, Catherine Symchych, and Jennine Poulin.

Team 3 Andre Emmell, Ruth Whitaker, Rose Orr, Linda Lane and Joanne Frymire.

If anyone has any questions call Ruth .

Pfaff For Sale

I have owned Bernina sewing machines for 30 years. Eighteen months ago I purchased a Pfaff at the quilt festival. It's a gorgeous machine, however, I found the learning curve to be frustrating having only owned Berninas. I have now purchased another Bernina and would like to sell this Pfaff, and I will give someone a very good deal.

Thank you for your time,
Marlene Cummings
