Volunteering to be on the board helps us keep this wonderful guild going. By being an active member of the guild you are able to help shape our future as a guild. This is a wonderful opportunity to get to know your fellow quilters better while giving back to our quilting community

We need a Vice President and a Programs co-chair. Please review the job descriptions on the next page.

Please contact myself or any of the board members or the nominating committee for more information.

VICE PRESIDENT

We currently do not have anyone to be Vice President for next year. While this is a critical position on the board, and signing up for the Vice President also means you are signing up to serve on the board for three years - VP, President and Past President - don't let that scare you.

All three of those positions are actually the easiest and least time consuming of the board positions.

Your main duties as VP are to fill in if the president is unavailable and schedule the meeting space for the next year. As the president, your main job is to run the Guild and the Board meetings, which pretty much run themselves. As past President, you are still a voting member of the board, so going to the board meetings is your main responsibility.

Perks - Free guild membership for three years, being in the know for all guild business.

PROGRAMS CO-CHAIR

Love learning who's who and what's what in the quilting world?

Itching to hear an expert in appliqué, color theory, new and clever ways to accomplish piecing, etc.?

Share your enthusiasm for quilting by working to bring great speakers and workshops to our guild. You'll work in tandem with Programs co-chair Caroline Juneau. Because program speakers and workshops are typically contracted out several years ahead of time, you have a head start on Oct, Nov, Apr, and May programs for coming year. Other months allow for more informal programming - member demos, pot lucks, etc.. You decide.

Responsibilities - Develop and schedule programs and workshops for the monthly meetings. Attend monthly Board meeting.

Perks - Free guild membership, free attendance at guild workshops

LIBRARIAN

Responsibilities: Manage the guild library

You can tailor this position to accommodate your schedule.

May Meeting Minutes

Champlain Valley Quilt Guild Meeting Minutes May 1, 2018

Meeting was called to order by President L. Hoffelt at 7:04pm.

Early Announcements:

P. Hechmer reports that nominating committee requires volunteers for Vice-President (who will become President the following year), an additional Program Co-Chair, a library committee chair and an additional Community Quilt co-chair.

L.Lane reminds all that Quilt Camp is this coming weekend and places are available. The fall Camp will be September 13-16. A survey regarding interest and suggestions for quilt camp will be e-mailed shortly. Please respond to the survey whether you are interested in the camp or are not interested in the camp. A paper survey will be available if you have no access to email.

Program:

Co-Chair C. Bloomhardt introduced tonight's speaker, Alison Bolt. Alison brought us up to date on the number of quilters and the amount of money spent in our pursuit in America. Many a hearty laugh was heard as she "confessed" her own "secrets" of the Type A quilter personality and shared many funny stories of setting up her sewing room and diverting the attention of her husband as her quilting obsession grew. Barbara Harrison won the bundle of fat quarters for coming closest to total spent on fabric each year.

Business:

Minutes of the previous meeting were approved as amended.

A.Garneau, Treasurer, made a comprehensive presentation of next year's budget and the show budget. These will be voted on by the membership at the June meeting. Participation of the Modern Quilt Guild, professional lighting and other issues were addressed by show Chair, A. Standish.

R. Whitaker read a letter from the grateful family of a recipient of a fidget quilt.

Community Quilts: R. Bortz reports 14 quilts given to Habitat for Humanity residents.

Challenge Quilt: S. McGuire reminds us that "coming full circle" is theme for this year.

Library: P. Farnsworth asks for all books and crates of books to be returned by June.

Raffles: Q of Valor: S. McGuire won the bundle of fat quarters

Quilt block: S. Rivers

Green Mt. Guild mtg is this Sat. L.Lane will be attending and will share ride with anyone interested in attending.

June Mtg is to be held at Holy Family Church in Essex Junction. We meet at 6pm for potluck (bring a savory or sweet to share) dinner. Bring any further Tea cup Auction items at 5pm. This meeting includes social interaction, voting for budgets and leadership, show and tell (including our Round Robin quilts) and a teacup auction. Directions will be e-mailed.

Meeting was closed at 9:08pm. Show and tell followed.

Barbara Harrison, Secretary

Community Quilts

As another year comes to an end, members of the Community Quilt Committee wish to give a heartfelt THANKS to everyone who in some way helped provide quilts to those in need in our community!

We wish you a wonderful summer break and look forward to seeing you back refreshed in the fall. Perhaps as a new member of Community Quilts! More hands will be needed as some of our members move on to other things. It's very rewarding!

Rita Bortz and Tammy Hall, Co-Chairs

Round Robin Quilts

I got a sneak peak at some of the round robin quilts and there are some fabulous ones. This is a reminder to all who participated in the round robin that we plan to have a group show and tell at the June meeting. If you can't be there perhaps you could send yours with someone else. Also we would like to have a special exhibit at the show. You need to register your quilt before or at the September meeting.

Ruth Whitaker

Thanks again, Donna Hamill
