A Note from the President

I found a wonderful quote this year that reads “It’s not how we weather the storm, but how we dance in the rain.” Well, we have had lots of opportunity to dance in the rain this summer. But on the bright side, it gave me lots of time to quilt. It’s hard to believe that it’s time to start the guild year all over again.

One of our goals this year is to make the business meeting briefer, so it will be very important for all members to read their newsletter to stay informed. We want to make new guest feel welcome, yet not bore the remaining members by having the committee heads explain their venues, so this year please make it a point to introduce yourself to new members and make them feel welcome. We will have new members check in with membership to receive their new member packet, as well as send them to the information booth where committee profiles can be explained.

Pam Farnsworth will again be manning the information booth, so if anyone has information they want to hand out, or post up, this is a great place to do it. Things you want to advertise, sell, or spread the news can be done there.

Our agenda will stay the same as last year. If you have show-n-tell-quilts please lay them out on the pew benches as you walk in on the Left, that way it gives people an opportunity to check them out early in the program. Agenda is as follows: Call meeting to order, welcome new guest, speaker, break, business meeting then show-n-tell.

I hope you all had a productive summer in between all the rain drops. Welcome to a new year, and thanks to our committee chairs for putting together another great year. Hope you enjoy it all.

Joanne, President of CVQG

“Go Green” Save Dough! Starting in October I would like to have those of you who get the newsletter via snail mail to allow me to send it to you via email. I will compress the file and you can download the compressed file and then open it up. The cost to mail 50 newsletters is around 5 yards of fabric! Lets try and save the planet and our Guild money. # Community Quilts

COMMUNITY QUILTS

I hope that everyone had a great summer! At the September meeting our Community Quilts table will be up and running! We will be accepting quilts you have completed over the summer – we have been busy cutting new kits and putting quilting kits together – please check out our table. Since we made our distribution in the spring, we have been receiving many thank you letters below are some of them:

Women Helping Battered Women – Every safe night that a child spends in a warm bed, every time we can answer our hotline and offer hope to the caller on the other end, every opportunity for a woman to lead a life free from violence is a result of your support. Your donation of quilts is changing lives every day. Thank you so much.

Spectrum – Thank you so much for your generous donation of quilts. These will be distributed to our young adults currently living at our Maple Street residence. They are always appreciated by all!

Cots – This past year, support services were provided to 150 different homeless families in shelter and in the community. Your donation allowed us to provide for the growing number of homeless families and individuals in our community. Thank you again for your generosity and for your caring.

Community Quilt Workshop – HOLD THIS DATE!!! October 24, 2009 from 10-5 at the Essex Alliance Church Community Center. More info to come next month.

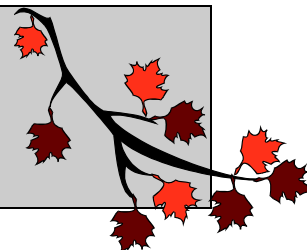

Let's keep up the good work for the next year – see you soon. Shirley Fuller [sa-fuller50@hotmail.com](mailto:s Fuller50@hotmail.com) or 872-9973

Guild Historian Needed

I cannot lie, this is a big job. The guild has boxes and boxes of historical data that needs TLC. Boxes of slides need to be brought to Costco and converted to DVDs, and then the DVDs need to be put into a power point program where data can be added to the pictures.

This would be a great project for a student, quilt guild group, or several people working together in a group. There has to be someone out there interested in preserving the history of the guild. There is money in the budget for this; all we need is the human force behind it. As they say in the Marines, we are looking for a few good women. If several people get together to help with this project it won't be so overwhelming. Costco has a $5 coupon off the transfer to DVDs. If you are not using it please consider donating the coupon to the Guild. Please contact Joanne Guilmette or a guild board member.

Maple Leaf Block Swap: A reminder to the Abnaki campers that are participating in the Block Swap the colors for the Blocks are beige background and leaves in fall colors. You need to make 20 blocks.

CVQG Fall 2009 Retreat

Where: Camp Abnaki, North Hero, Vermont on the beautiful, peaceful shores of Lake Champlain

When: Sept, 24,25,26,27, 2009

Hours: 9:00 am on Thursday the 24th through 2:00 pm on Sunday the 28th

8:00 am on Friday the 25th through 2:00 pm on Sunday the 28th

Sewing Space: We can set up our sewing spaces in the dining hall using the large round tables provided (2 people per table) or bring your own table. You will need sewing lights and, if you prefer, your own sewing chair. Because space is limited and ironing stations worked so well in the past, we plan to have them again, so unless you are asked to bring your iron, please don't.

Sleeping: Most of us sleep in the cabins, which have four sets of bunk beds in each. You will need to bring your sleeping bag and pillow as well as towel and washing stuff. The South Village cabins are equipped with heaters, While the North Village has none. Some quilters choose to sleep on a cot beside their sewing machines to maximize sewing time.

Bathhouses: There are two bathroom blocks, both simple, but adequate with hot water.

Meals: You are responsible for your own meals Thursday, breakfast & lunch on Friday. Meals will be provided for us from Friday dinner to Sunday brunch. Water will be provided.

Sign-up Procedure: Quilt camp is open to fully paid-up members of the Guild. Space is limited to approximately 50 participants. Guests (non-guild members) will only be accepted if space is available. Once the spaces have been filled, a waiting list will be kept. If you are unable to attend after you register, replacement will be taken from the waiting list. If there is no waiting list, you will be responsible for finding a replacement. No refunds will be given after 9/14/09 if there is no replacement. If you have questions, please contact Kathy Kenney 879-2456. Fill in the form below and return it to the April meeting with your check for $110(full retreat plus Thurs with no meals) $92 (Full Retreat-night and meals) or $55 (Day attendance-meals only) payable to CVQG . Or mail to Kathy Kenney 28 Briar Lane Essex Junction VT 05452. You will receive confirmation of your place via email from Ambs6155@comcast.net ;( snail mail if no computer)

This can be a fun filled weekend and a great opportunity to relax, visit with friends and even get some sewing done!

Sept., Oct., and Nov. Programs

September 1: Hope Johnson

Hope Johnson has been a member of CVQG for 4 years and has been quilting for 27 years.

Hope's quilt Honey, I'm Home won a First Place Ribbon, Governor's Award for Best Vermont Quilt, and Judge's Choice at Vermont Quilt Festival

2009. She has certification in art education and has taught beginning quilt making to adults.

Hope has worked as a volunteer at the Shelburne Museum helping to conserve, photograph and catalog their quilt collection, as well as demonstrating hand quilting at special exhibits.

Lecture - The Lady of the Lake: A Vermont Quilt Pattern Mystery

In preparation for the creation of this year's raffle quilt Lady of the Lake, Hope did extensive research on the history of the Lady of the Lake quilts. Hope will start off the year by sharing the information that she learned. Please bring your Lady of the Lake quilts (excluding this year's challenge quilts which will be shown at a later meeting) to show after the lecture.

October 6-7 : Jane Davila

Jane Davila is a fiber and mixed-media artist who began her professional art career as a printmaker. Jane's work has been published in Quilting Arts and Cloth Paper Scissors magazines and she has appeared on The Quilt Show with Alex Anderson and Ricky Tims and on Quilting Arts TV. Jane and her mother, Claire Oehler, opened a quilt shop, The Country Quilter, in Somers NY in 1990. They have designed over 200 patterns and 11 books specializing in whimsical contemporary children's quilts, which are sold worldwide. The store closed in March after nearly 19 years, but continues as an online retail and wholesale business and releases at least 8 new designs each year.

Jane is also the co-author, with Elin Waterston, of Art Quilt Workbook and Art Quilts at Play for C&T Publishing. They also recorded a dvd Jane Davila & Elin Waterston Teach You Art Quilting Basics. Jane enjoys showing others how art design principles and techniques can be applied to quilts of all kinds - traditional, contemporary, innovative and art. Her books are like cookbooks for art quilters with lots of small projects on many different techniques. <http://www.janedavila.com/>

Lecture – October 6 - Elements of Design

Good design starts with the basic elements, like color, texture, line & shape. Develop an understanding of what you see and what you like, and apply it to your quilts.

Workshop – Project Patchwork

Date: Wednesday, October 7

Time: 9:00-3:30

Cost:

$35

Wanted: Quilt Rack and Storage Unit Chairperson

Easiest job in the Guild. Maintain Key to the storage unit and maintain record of who and when the poles are rented. Meet other Guilds and business who rent our quilt stands when they pick up and return the poles. This happens only 5 to 6 times a year. With doing the newsletter I will not be able to continue the job. Times to meet are at your convenience. Let Joanne know if you are interested. I will send files to you or put them on a disk and go over everything with you. Thanks, Tammie

November 3-5: Annie Smith

Annie lectures and teaches quilting internationally. In 2005, she began Quilting Stash, the First Podcast for Quilters where she talks about all things related to quilting and interviews her quilting heroes. Annie's technical expertise takes many forms, although fabric selection and fine machine appliqué are her specialties. Annie develops a quick rapport with the audience and immediately immerses herself in tales every quilter can relate to and provides valuable insight along the way. A native Californian, Annie lives with her husband and two of their three children, who all quilt and contribute to her podcast and to her quilting obsession. Annie's lecture style is light-hearted, full of laughter and warmth. Every audience member will relate to the things of which Annie speaks. In her lectures and workshops, Annie crosses boundaries of age and experience and displays the love she has for this craft as few others can. <http://simplearts.com/blogs/>

Lecture (November 3) Understanding the Value of Color

**** The November meeting will be held at the North Avenue Alliance Church, Burlington.

Annie takes you through a journey of color and fabric, discussing what the KEY to your fabric choices really is. No matter what your skill level, learn how to enliven your quilts' personality by choosing your fabric with a new eye to color. The keys to fabric selection are thoroughly discussed as well as how to make the color design rules work for you.

Workshop (Two days): Exploring Fabric Choices

*As seen on Alex Anderson and Ricky Tims' The Quilt Show

Dates: Wed & Thurs, Nov 4 & 5      Time: 9:00-3:30      Cost: $45

Location: United Church of Colchester, 900 Main St., Colchester      $16 kit fee-made out to Annie

Traditionally, quilters often struggle making fabric choices when planning a quilt. Learn exactly what draws the eye to interesting blocks and give them life. Annie helps you select colors for your projects on purpose instead of by-gosh-and-by-golly. Keys to effective fabric selection are thoroughly discussed with hands-on exercises using fabric swatches, and helpful aids. Day 1 focuses on exercises that help a quilter choose a palette of fabrics for making a quilt. Participants will make a series of paste-up blocks and discover the many variations the palette offers when making these blocks. On Day 2 participants will finish quilt top using the first day's key block exercises, learning many of Annie's finishing tips.

Quilt Show 2009

Hello, fellow quilters!

Quilt Registration

The September meeting is quickly approaching (Yikes! Autumn, already?). That means the deadline is approaching to get our quilts registered for the November quilt show. Notice how I said “registered” and not “finished”? That’s because they don’t need to be finished to register them. They only need to be completed enough to be recognizable from the picture that must be submitted with your registration forms. Early registrations are sincerely appreciated. As of this writing we have only 2 quilts registered.

Let me reiterate something mentioned in the previous paragraph. A photo must be submitted with the registration form this year. This is a change only for the few folks who have referred us to photos taken at past guild meetings for their registrations. Feel free to use photos taken at the meetings, just please do not depend upon me to find, download and print the picture of your quilt.

Registration forms can be found on our website. I will also have some hard copies with me at the September meeting. If you plan to submit the forms at the September meeting, remember to include a check, photos, quilt measurement (perimeter), and self-addressed stamped envelope.

Happy quilting! June Sweeney

Quilt Show Update

The Quilt Show preparations are moving along wonderfully!

In keeping with this year’s theme, Ladies of the Lake, we’ve invited three fabulous, community conscious women to be our VIP’s: Madeline Kunin, Lois McClure and Wanda Hines. They have had an enormous influence on the character and culture of our beautiful Vermont communities. They have each accepted our invitation to be part of our celebration and will be attending our opening reception on Friday night, November 13!

I've had an inquiry to publicize our show in American Profile Magazine! We're getting' a rep!

A few other reminders about the show:

We will NOT be taking photos of your quilts this year. You must provide your own photo with your entry paperwork.

We are still in need of volunteers! Please contact Laura Clements to find out how you can help. Thank you.

See you at the next guild meeting! Linda Lazarowski

Craft Table

Now is the time to begin making things for the Craft Table at the Quilt Show. We had the best year yet last year so keep up the good work. New people are always welcome. The form and instructions are printed on the website at any time under the Quilt Show items.

I will accept donations at any time but will be available at the Quilt Drop Off day or on the Friday of Quilt Show setup. Hope to see a lot of new and exciting items. Any questions give me a call - Shirley Fuller 872-9973

Quilt Show Volunteers needed

Please see me at the September meeting, to sign up for volunteering at the Champlain Valley "Ladies of the Lake" Quilt Show in November. We are in need of:

Show setup people on Thursday Nov 12th and Friday Nov 13th;

Staffing for Saturday Nov 14th and Sunday Nov 15th.

Show takedown happens on Sunday Nov 15th - the more helpers we have, the faster you get your quilts back from the show!

As a volunteer, you will get free admission to the show. Please sign up to help, and be a part of what is sure to be another spectacular quilt show.

Laura Clements

Silent Auction

Our summer weather has not been the greatest, but I hope it has given everyone some extra sewing time. I'll be looking for lots of silent auction items at the September meeting. Remember if they are wall hangings to put a sleeve or loops on them. Also, often the purchaser asks who made an item, although not required, it would be nice if you signed them.

Thanks, Ruth Whitaker 985-2950

Show Publicity

The publicity committee has been working on advertising for the quilt show since February, and this fall, we will need your help!

We have many 8.5" x 11" show posters to put up, and we are asking every guild member to post at least 3 posters. Some ideas of where you can post them are:

- Your local grocery stores,
- Any local shops,
- Churches,
- Hair salons,
- Your workplace,
- The workplace of your spouse or friend,
- Your favorite restaurant,
- Your town hall.

Are you going to a quilt show or craft fair or antiques festival this fall? Bring a poster! Do you live near the Cold Hollow Cider Mill in Waterbury? Bring a poster! Does your friend run a business where customers come into their office? Bring a poster!

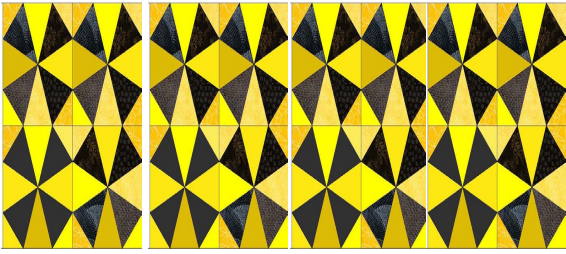

We will have lots of posters available at the September meeting, so you can pick up as many as you need. They will be located on our Quilt Show Volunteer sign table, and the Membership check-in table. Please join us in helping to ensure a successful turnout for our show.

Stocking Raffle

Door Prize Baskets will be starting in Oct. The basket theme for October will be Halloween. If any members would like to donate items that would be greatly appreciated. All proceeds from the monthly drawing will be used for the Christmas stocking pro-

Raffle Time

Inspiration: This is a popular paper pieced design, which is simple to construct, but has a complex curvy secondary design when the blocks are assembled. I've chosen a 5 inch completed block size, so that the completed quilt will be not quite miniature. I love the new fabrics that are available in the "taxi cab" color way of black, yellow, and white

Size: 5 1/2" by 5 1/2" unfinished.

Colors: Black, yellow, and white. White should be limited to the accent color. The fabrics should "read" either black or yellow. Choose many or few fabrics. The blocks can be scrappy, as long as the fabrics "read" cohesively.

Sewing Instructions: Print out the paper templates as included in PDF format here. Make sure your printout measures 5 by 5 inches (excluding seam allowance). Follow the shading to correspond to the color illustration, so that all shaded areas are either black or yellow. It would be best to make at least 2 blocks, one with yellow as the back ground, the other with black as the back ground. Assemble the "A" section, then the "B" section. Sew together carefully, matching the points in the center. You may attach sections A and B before or after you remove the paper, but please remove the paper from the finished block.

Questions? Feel free to call or email. Anne Standish 644-5031, atstan@pwshift.com

If any of you are new to paper piecing and would like to try this technique, I'm available for a quick curb side tutorial at the September meeting. Just find me.

Andre Emmell and I are sharing the block of the month job this year. We will each be orchestrating 4 blocks. I am open to suggestions from any of you about favorites you have always wished would be offered as BOM blocks. I am going to try to mix it up this year, and offer different approaches to this very popular guild project.

The library has some great new books to start off this New Year. I hope they inspire you to try a new technique. You will find them in the New Books Crate:

Stack-n Whack Ipeedia and Stack-n-Whackier Quilts by Bethany S. Reynolds

Creative Quilting with Beads Bags, Aprons, Mini-Quilts & More by Valerie Van Arsdale Shrader

Art Quilts at Play by Jane Davila & Elin Waterston

Kaleidoscope Quilts by Paula Nadelstern

Beautiful Blooms Quilts and Cushions to Appliqué' By Susan Taylor Propst

Bodacious Appliqué' A La Carte by Margie Engel

Quilt-O Grams 8 creative Keepsakes to stitch & Send by Cheryl Malkowski

We have money in the budget for purchasing new library materials, so please make suggestions. I also welcome donations of current quilting publications for the library. Please contact me first if there is a large amount. I urge everyone to return library books that are overdue. Ten book crates are looking for temporary homes for this year. If you would like to host a crate of books please e-mail or call me. Joannesew@aol.com or 802 244-8373 .Each month you will bring a crate home, be inspired by all the terrific ideas and return the crate to the meeting picking up a new crate to host. I will oversee the library at the meeting checking books back in and helping members.

So please consider hosting a book crate for the year.

Library News

Claire Graham-Smith will be participating in the South End Art Hop, Sept 11th and 12th, for the second year. Her studio, 'Around Back Quilting', will be open Friday evening, 4-9 pm, and Saturday, 10-5 pm. Special featured artists are Noah and Liam Patullo. On display will be many award-winning quilts, items for sale, demos, and a 'make and take' project. Claire has classes for kids Oct 1st-29th. Beginning to quilt for adults coming soon. Plan to stop by at 107 Cherry Lane, Burlington. Check official Art Hop Site Map for stop number. 660-8903 claire@burligtontelecom.net

The Green Mountain Quilters' Guild has been asked by the Vermont Quilt Festival to create a special exhibit for their 2010 show. "Treasures of the Green Mountain State" is the theme for our exhibit. The only requirement to participate is that you be a Green Mountain Quilters' Guild member. You are invited to make a quilt depicting what you think is a treasure of Vermont. It could be a special place, special person, flower, tree, bird, animal, product – let your imagination run free. Perhaps you already have a completed quilt that fits into this broad "treasures" category that you would like to share. Any quilts included in this display are not eligible for the VQF competition.

All quilts must have three layers. You may embellish your quilt with beads, thread work, buttons, paint – have fun, anything goes! As to the size of your piece, wall hangings would be best, but the circumference should be no more than 240" total.

Depending on how many entries are submitted and our space limitations this may become a juried exhibition, but our aim is to hang all entries. Entry Forms (found on this website) need to be sent to arrive no later than March 1, 2010. The quilts need to be completed and sent to arrive no later than June 15, 2010. The mailing address for both the entry forms and quilts is: Diane Harris, PO Box 145, Monroe, NH 03771.

If you have any questions please contact Diane Harris at 603-638-4417 or email at yearfive@aol.com. If emailing, please include Green Mountain or Treasures on the subject line.

4th Annual UFO Challenge

RULES:

- 1) A UFO is a project that has been started at least through cutting (at that point the fabric is committed!)
- 2) Fill in the table below and hand in to Karen Abrahamovich at the September or October meeting.
September can be a UFO you completed over the summer, February is a Community quilt.
- 3) Each month check in with Karen with -your finished project or a photo of the finished product.
- 4) Last check-in is the May meeting.

Bus Trip Thoughts & Comments

Twenty Nine CVQG members were joined by seven Heart of Vermont Members for our August 1st bus trip. Our first stop was keepsake quilting and I'm sure we boasted their daily sales significantly! The quilt show in the high school in Wolfeboro, brought back memories of the VQF show at Norwich – hot and humid! There was a large variety of quilts and everyone seemed to enjoy their day. Ruth Whitaker

We left Williston at 7:02 a.m. on August 1 and arrived in Center Harbor a bit over 3 hours later. Thirty-seven rabid fabriholics descended upon the bolts, notions and et ceteras. Lunch on the porches at Senter's Market, gourmet dining perched on the Adirondack chairs on the boardwalk. Then we re-boarded the bus for the trip to the quilt show in Wolfeboro. The show was in a school, no air conditioning (flashbacks to VQF at Northfield, anyone?). There were over 400 quilts to see in a very short time. Vendors with lots of cool stuff too! The traffic near Lake Winnepesaukee was a bit heavier than anticipated – we got back to Williston around 8 p.m. A long day, but I wouldn't have missed it for anything! Thank you Ruth! Wish we could go again!
